

Authors

Sharmistha Sinha

Sharmistha Sinha is Deputy Director with the National Institute for Labour Economics Research and Development, Planning Commission, Government of India. Her research areas include Gender based Discrimination in the labour market, Changing patterns and structural changes in the Labour market and Employment, Skill Development, Poverty, Livelihoods, Macroeconomics and Development and other research and policy issues. She has also worked with the Ministry of Women and Child Development, International Labour Organisation, DWT-South Asia and UNWOMEN. She has various national and international publications to her acclaim.

Kavita

Dr. Kavita, Assistant Professor, in Giri Institute of Development Studies, Lucknow. She has done her Doctorate on "Participation and Economic Contribution of Women in Agriculture with Special Reference to Western Uttar Pradesh" from the Giri Institute of Development Studies, Lucknow, Chhatrapati Shahu Ji Maharaj University, Kanpur. She also holds a M.A. & M.Phil degree in Economics from the Department of Economics, Ch. Charan Singh University Campus Meerut and has done her She has been a recipient of ICSSR Doctoral Fellowship. Before joining Giri Institute of Development Studies, she was working as a Research Associate in National Mission for Empowerment of Women (NMEW) in the domain of "Poverty Alleviation and Economic Empowerment of Women", Ministry of Women and Child Development, GOI, New Delhi. She has also worked as a Senior Research Fellow (SRF) in the project "Strengthening the value chain for economic efficiency: The case of small ruminant meat marketing in India (ICAR-funded)" in NCAP, Pusa, New Delhi. Till now she has 12 research papers, 1 article in edited books and one paper in Government reports. She has presented papers in a number of national conferences and seminars. Major areas of her research interest are Gender Studies, gender based discrimination, employment, Wages, Labour and Employment-changing patterns (sectoral, regional), Skill Development, Macroeconomics and Development, Child skewed sex ratio, issue related to agriculture development.